

Natalija Miletic

[Redacted]

Hide details

To:

[Redacted]

Date: July 11, 2014, 12:57 PM

Dear Susanne Raj,

regarding my inquiry about parts of the plagiarised doctoral thesis that were published by De Gruyter, I am sending you the following information:

1. De Gruyter article in question: <http://www.degruyter.com/view/j/oam.2012.4.issue-153/v10166-012-0037-3/v10166-012-0037-3.xml?format=IN>
2. Analyses of the thesis by Sinisa Mali in english <http://balkanist.net/belgrade-mayor-sinisa-little-big-plagiarist/>
3. The thesis were Mali plagiarised his work from <http://dissertations.ub.rug.nl/faculties/management/2001/s.hailemariam/>
4. attached the article published by De Gruyter analysed with Turnitin.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Best,

--

Natalija Miletic

[Redacted]

www.theunsoldstories.com

www.serbinale.org

Michal Berent / De Gruyter Open

Hide details

To:

Natalija Miletic

Date: August 28, 2014, 5:51 PM

Dear Natalija,

I have received confirmation from editor that the article you pointed to use is a plagiarism. Editors are currently preparing Retraction Note on that. I also suggested to contact the author and his superior to inform about this fact.

Once again thank you for pointing this article to us and making us aware of misconduct.

With kind regards,

Michal Berent